Dear Dr. Firman:

Greetings!

We are writing to inform you about a new initiative that Davao del Norte State College (DNSC) is organizing. For the first time, we are hosting a Course Fair with the theme "Explore, Navigate and Learn for a Future-Ready Career", a unique opportunity that we believe will greatly benefit the Grade 12 students in Panabo City.

The Course Fair is designed to be an exploratory platform for students to discover the various courses available to them, assisting them in identifying their career interests. This event will provide students with a comprehensive overview of the courses offered at DNSC, helping them to make informed decisions about their academic paths and future careers.

We would highly appreciate your approval to allow interested Grade 12 students to participate in the Course Fair. Their participation is entirely voluntary. The fair will run from October 23 to 25, 2024, and we have identified specific schools that will be invited to attend each day. Please find the schedule below:
