Panabo City

Dear SDS Firman,

Warmest Greetings!

The celebration of Library and Information Services Month (LISM) in November, as initiated by Proclamation No. 837, series of 1991, underscores the pivotal role that libraries and information centers play in our society.

The City Government of Panabo through the Panabo City Library will be celebrating the Library and Information Services Month 2024 with the theme: "LibVOCACY: Unity Towards Inclusive and Empowered Libraries". LISM 2024 seeks to resonate the impact of these annual celebrations by conducting events and activities that align with the evolving needs of libraries and information centers.

In line with this, we will be conducting the following series of competitions:

LIST OF COMPETITIONS
Best Dress Character Contest	Grade School Category
	Senior High School - College Category
Logo Contest	Open to all interested individuals
Spoken Poetry	Open to all interested individuals
Book Face Challenge	Open to all interested individuals

The Venue of the competition will be at the ABC Hall Park & Plaza, Barangay New Pandan, Panabo City on November 7, 2024. Thus, we are inviting your school to participate and send representatives to these competitions.

Attached are the mechanics of the competition.

Sincerely,

JAYSON B. ALIBANGO, RL, MSLIS
Librarian II
