Dear Sir Farnazo,

Greetings of Peace!

I am Fr. Christopher Thadeos R. Ganzon from the Society of Mary-Marist Fathers, currently serving as the vocation director for our congregation in Asia, specifically in the Philippines and Thailand. I am working with Alvin Ferolino who is one of our lay vocation promoters. He will be most of the time working in the field.

I am writing to respectfully request permission for our congregation to engage in vocation promotion in the schools in region XI. Our mission is to visit parishes for posting & schools to offer young men in Grade 12 level a meaningful opportunity to discern their life's calling, whether it be in religious life or priestly life. This initiative is not just about presenting a career option; it is about providing a space for young men to contemplate the kind of life they wish to lead and understand the path God desires for them.

Our approach centers on introducing our missionary charism and spirituality, hoping to inspire those who may feel called to the Marist way of life. Your support in this endeavor – by allowing us to share this invitation – would be immensely valuable and deeply appreciated.

Respectfully yours,

FR. CHRISTOPHER THADEOS R. GANZON, SM
