Subject : PARTICIPATION TO THE NATIONAL MUSIC COMPETITIONS FOR YOUNG ARTISTS (NAMCYA)

Date : October 30, 2024

This is in reference to the Regional Memorandum CLMD-2024-636, which pertains to participation in the National Music Competitions for Young Artists (NAMCYA), and CLMD-2024-547, which details the results of the Semifinal Round of the 2024 NAMCYA Regional Cluster, both duly signed by Director IV Allan G. Farnazo, stipulating that Panabo City National High School Rondalla has qualified for the 2024 NAMCYA Final Round, which will take place from November 19-24, 2024, at the Metropolitan Theater, Plaza Lawton in Ermita, Manila.

In this regard, the attached list of participants is hereby advised to prepare Authority to Travel duly signed by the immediate supervisor and approved by the undersigned. Departure is on November 18, with return on November 25, 2024.

Students involved must secure parental consent, and they will be given special quizzes, exams, and/or requirements by their respective subject teachers so as not to hamper their rehearsals and representation on the national stage.

Identified teachers are directed to arrange their respective schedules to avoid disruption of classes and institute measures to increase engaged time-on-task pursuant to the existing DepEd orders.

Travel expenses (transportation, per diem) and other necessary expenses incurred for this competition shall be charged to local funds of the division for division personnel and local funds of the school for school personnel, all subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

Dissemination and compliance of this memorandum is desired.

CONDUCT OF THE NATIONAL MUSIC COMPETITIONS FOR YOUNG ARTISTS (NAMCYA)

DATE

September 13, 2024

1. The National Music Competitions for Young Artists (NAMCYA) Foundation Inc. chaired by the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA), in cooperation with the Department of Education (DepEd), Commission on Higher Education (CHED), Department of Tourism (DOT), Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG), Department of Information and Communications Technology (DICT), Director-General of the Philippine Information Agency (PIA), Cultural Center of the Philippines (CCP), and the National Youth Commission (NYC), announces the holding of the 2024 National Music Competitions for Young Artists (NAMCYA). Its culmination shall be during the National Music Week with the theme, Gintong Pamana (Golden Legacy) from November 21 to 26, 2024 at the Metropolitan Theater, Manila.

2. As the Philippine National Youth Development Program in Music, the NAMCYA aims to achieve the following objectives:

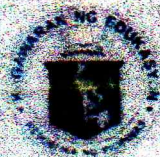

- Discover outstanding musical talents through nationwide competitions and festivals designed for young Filipino musicians in all forms, styles, and musical traditions in the country;
- Assist in the cultivation, development, and advancement of outstanding young Filipino musicians through scholarships, trainings, performances, and other forms of incentives;
- Preserve, develop, and promote Philippine music as an art and as an important component of cultural and social development;
- Establish a training program for music leaders, experts, and teachers in order to maintain and cultivate the highest standard of musical training for the youth;
- Strengthen the multi-cultural fiber of the country by nurturing and developing gifted young musicians and musical ensembles from

Philippine cultural communities, and preserve and disseminate their musical expressions and tradition:

- f. Encourage and support the creation and performance of works by young Filipino composers and make possible their publication and dissemination;
- g. Recognize artistic achievement through awards, grants, and services;
- h. Undertake a continuing program of research, documentation, and publication of Philippine music for dissemination to schools and the general public;
- i. Receive and accept donations and other conveyances from government agencies, private entities, and other sources, including funds, materials, and services, by gratuitous title, in accordance with existing budgeting and accounting rules and regulations;
- j. Strengthen the character of the youth by developing and promoting a range of positive youth development skills that foster self-awareness, self-expression, discipline, and values like love of family and country through music;
- k. Raise the standards of hiring personnel by engaging the services of qualified classical and traditional Filipino musicians, with at least a bachelor's degree in Music Education, and known for their competence and proficiency in music, or in the use of musical instruments;
- l. Allocate funds in the technical production for the performing arts and the promotion of original Filipino music in various genres and style;
- m. Promote a vibrant music industry for the young workers and entrepreneurs that can fuel artistic growth, job creation, business investment, tourism, and economic growth;
- n. Subsidize continuous research, innovation, market information, and assimilation of various forms, styles, genres, and music development representing the musical diversity of all the regions of the Philippines through webinars, conferences, and festivals;
- o. Maintain a database of Filipino youth participating in various NAMCYA-organized activities. Provided, that the database as well as NAMCYA's annual targets and programs shall be shared with the National Youth Commission or other relevant government agencies; and
- p. Invest in digital information systems in order to enhance the production and performance of creative works directed towards cultural development.

3. The conduct of this activity is pursuant to Presidential Proclamation (PP) No. 25, s. 1998, which declares the last week of November of each year as the National Music Week wherein NAMCYA Competitions are the main focus of the celebration, PP No. 80, s. 2001, which affirms NAMCYA's mission for the nation's Young Artists, and Republic Act (RA) No. 11915, which designates NAMCYA as the Philippine National Youth Development Program for Music.

4. The regional directors (RDs), assisted by their regional and schools division coordinators, are designated as heads of the NAMCYA Regional Committees to oversee the identification and selection of participants in their respective areas. The NAMCYA Secretariat shall undertake national coordination. The concerned regional coordinators for Culture and the Arts in the Regional Center Competitions are requested to identify and select at least 150 learners from the Special Programs in the Arts Schools or nearby public secondary schools offering Music Education Programs.
