These schools' remarkable dedication in promoting oral health and wellness among their learners serve as model for other schools to observe. The learners shall receive a Certificate of Achievement and Special Recognition during the EOSY Rites.

This achievement is a testament to the hard work and dedication of learners, teachers and school administrators in promoting oral health and wellness.

DepEd-Panabo City Division congratulate these schools on their accomplishment and this office expresses its gratitude for their commitments in support of our oral health initiatives.

Congratulations!
