JINKY B. FIRMAN PHD, CESO VI
Schools Division Superintendent
DepEd - Schools Division of Panabo City

Dear Ma'am,

Good day!

The Health Emergency and Disaster Management Unit (HEDMU) of Davao Regional Medical Center (DRMC) will be conducting Basic Life Support for Lay Rescuers and Standard First Aid Training for the teaching and not teaching staff of the Department of Education – Davao Del Norte. This training aims to strengthen and expand the pool of competent responders who will deliver Basic Life Support or Standard First Aid during emergency situations.

In support of the mandated trainings under the Disaster Risk Reduction and Management for Health (DRRM-H) program, we would like to invite Mr. Hernani A. Resueño, RN, EMT as Co-Facilitator for the upcoming trainings:

July 21-24, 2025 – Batch 1
July 28-31, 2025 – Batch 2

With his training as a Department of Health Certified Instructor and numerous experiences, he is well-positioned to provide valuable skills, introduce strategies, and highlight best practices that will significantly enhance the overall effectiveness of the training.

The activity is at the Grand Palm Villas and Hotel, Tagum City. Transportation expenses, per diem, and other incidental expenses shall be charged to sending agency while board and lodging during the training will be borne by Department of Education – Davao Del Norte Region.

Should our request merit your approval, we will greatly appreciate if we could confirm your commitment on or before July 11, 2025 through this cellphone number 0916 627 8652, Mr. Benedict Concha, Administrative Staff or you may email us at hemu@drmc@doh.gov.ph. Furthermore, we will conduct levelling amongst facilitators on July 11, 2025, 1:00-5:00 PM at the CMPS Hall, Geriatrics Bldg., DRMC.

Thank you very much, and more power.
