KAHIMUNAN RESEARCH CONFERENCE 2025 GUIDELINES

Rationale

"Kahimunan," a Manobo term meaning "to gather," is an annual research conference hosted by the UP Mindanao Department of Human Kinetics. It serves as a platform to showcase research in fitness, health, wellness, sports, games, and physical education pedagogy, while fostering collaboration among scholars in human movement and sports science. Now in its fifth year, Kahimunan also supports the University's ongoing efforts to expand its academic offerings, including the Associate in Arts in Sports Science (AASS), Bachelor of Sports Science (BSS), Diploma in Exercise and Sports Science (DESS), and MS in Human Movement Science (MSHMS).

Objectives

1. To provide a venue for scholars to present research findings on sports, physical education, and human movement science.
2. To promote collaboration and knowledge-sharing among researchers, educators, and practitioners in related fields.
3. To use research as an aid in enhancing sports development in Mindanao.

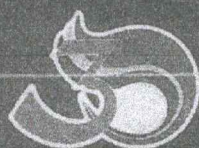

Submission of Entries

- You can submit your abstract entries to dhk.upmindanao@up.edu.ph with the subject line: [Kahimunan 2025 Submission _ Last Name].
- Deadline of submissions is on August 29, 2025.
- All entries will be screened by the review committee.
- Participants will be notified through email regarding their submissions.
