The Department of Education (DepEd), through the Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Service (DRRMS), will conduct the 2025 DRRM-CCA Summit on 01-03 October 2025 at a venue within Metro Manila.

The Summit will bring together DRRM Coordinators and partners across the education sector to:

- a. Launch the DRRMS key initiatives (Plansmart for Safe Schools Web Application, Pillar 1: Safer Learning Facilities Guidebook, and M7X Program);
- b. Orient on the Incident Management Reporting System (IMRS);
- c. Provide updates on the State of DRRM in the Basic Education Cluster;
- d. Present and consult on draft DRRM policies in the Basic Education Sector;
- e. Share upcoming capacity building programs and initiatives;
- f. Foster networking, collaboration, and knowledge sharing among DRRM Coordinators; and
- g. Highlight the role of the DRRM Coordinators Association of the Philippines (DRRMCAP) as a partner in strengthening school safety and resilience.

Attached is the program of activities (Annex A) for reference.

In this regard, all Regional and Division DRRM Coordinators are directed to participate in the said event. The board and lodging of all registered participants shall be charged to the 2025 Disaster Preparedness and Response Program (DPRP) current fund. Travel and other related expenses may be charged against local funds or available DPRP funds, both continuing and current, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

Only pre-registered participants will be accommodated with the following provisions outlined in the table below:
