Subject: PLANNING CONFERENCE OF REGISTERED GUIDANCE COUNSELORS
 FOR TEACHERS' PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT ON EMOTIONAL CARE, COUNSELING IN THE WORKPLACE AND CAREER GUIDANCE

Date : November 17, 2025

In line with the implementation of Republic Act No. 12080, otherwise known as the Guidance and Counseling Act, all Registered Guidance Counselors (RGCs), and Education Program Supervisor in Values Education are hereby enjoined to attend the Planning Conference scheduled on November 18, 2025 (Tuesday), 9:00 a.m. onwards at the Division CID Office, Panabo City.

This initiative aims to enhance the capacity of teachers to provide emotional care, supportive listening, and basic counseling response in the workplace, thereby fostering a safe, compassionate, and mentally healthy school environment.

The activity is expected to create meaningful impact on the Division's clientele by fostering a culture of care and emotional support. Learners will receive timely emotional support, helping them feel valued and understood within the learning environment. Teachers will gain confidence and emotional readiness to respond with empathy and composure in challenging situations. Moreover, the Community will experience strengthened collaboration and trust as schools continue to serve as centers of care, compassion, and collective well-being.

Attendance to this planning conference is highly encouraged as it forms part of the Division's continuing commitment to promote mental health awareness, wellness, and responsive counseling and career guidance programs in schools.
