Re: INVITATION to SIDLAK WCD PHILIPPINES FESTIVAL

Mabuhay ug Madayaw:

Warm greetings in the spirit of harmony and hope.

It is with great pleasure and deep respect that we extend this formal invitation to Mystiki Chorodia and Mr. Neal Keith Allon Gonzales, conductor to participate in SIDLAK: The 15th World Choral Day Philippines Festival, to be held in Davao City from 12 to 14 December 2025.

For the past fifteen years, this festival has stood as a beacon for Philippine choral artistry—a space where choirs from across the nation converge in celebration of unity, cultural pride, and the transformative power of music. From its modest beginnings, the World Choral Day Philippines Festival has evolved into a highly anticipated annual gathering of voices and visionaries, continuing to nurture excellence and foster harmony among Filipino choristers.

The annual observance of World Choral Day, organised by the International Federation for Choral Music (IFCM), celebrates the communal act of singing as a profound expression of unity, solidarity, and peace. This year's global theme, "Singing for Peace, Connection, and Our Common Home," calls us to sing not only with artistry but with purpose—to use our collective voices to bridge divides and honour our shared humanity.

Locally, our region's adaptation of this global celebration—"Gidlaw"—bloomed last year into a resounding success. The event gathered choirs across Mindanao, weaving together diverse musical traditions into one harmonious expression of community and hope. Its impact was felt deeply, inspiring us to expand the experience and reach new heights this year through SIDLAK.

SIDLAK, a Visayan word meaning to shine forth or to radiate light, embodies our aspiration for every participant to rise, illuminate, and inspire through music. This year's three-day festival will include masterclasses, rehearsals, and a grand culminating FREE concert designed to elevate the choral experience to world-class standards.

We are also deeply privileged that Maestro Ryan Cayabyab, our National Artist for Music, will join us this year.
