Dr. Firman:

Greetings!

The whole nation annually observes the death anniversary of our national hero, Dr. Jose Rizal. This commemoration honors his patriotism and martyrdom, and his unwavering fight for our country's independence against foreign oppressors.

The City Government of Panabo will join this annual commemoration on December 30, 2025 – 7:00 AM at the Museo Panabo Grounds, City Parks and Plaza, Panabo City. This activity aims to instill in all of us, especially among the younger generations, the significance of Dr. Jose Rizal's contributions that helped shaped our nation. The celebration also seeks to emphasize the importance of everyone's participation in preserving our heritage and passing on national pride to future generations.

In connection to this, may we kindly request the participation of the PCNHS Marching Band, together with Band Conductor Mr. Lenjun Diaz, to be part of this meaningful occasion and help highlight the celebration. Furthermore, we request Mr. Diaz's presence during the coordinative meeting, the details of which will be coordinated directly to him.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Tourism Cultural Development Office at (084) 655-0031 and look for Reena Kathryn Galaura.

Thank you for your continued support.
